SUBJECT: Address of the Potomac Chapter
 National Military Intelligence Association

NMIA is a professional military intelligence association founded in 1973 at Fort Huachuca, Arizona. According to the NMIA brochure, members are either engaged in the military intelligence profession in the Armed Forces of the United States or are US citizens who have an interest in military intelligence and support the role of military intelligence in the safeguarding of our nation's security. The Association is the unofficial spokesman of military intelligence personnel of all the Military Services. Members are located throughout the world. The mission of the NMIA is to enhance the intelligence skills found in the Military Services and other elements of the US Government which contribute to a strong national security posture. The Association fosters activities designed to increase the professionalism of intelligence personnel whose expertise is vital to the successful pursuit of the mission of the Armed Forces. (See opposite for brochure.)

Previous speakers have been Ray Wannell, former Assistant Director of the FBI, and Captain Jack Beaver, USN, head of the DNI's Damage Assessment Task Force on the Walker-Whitworth case.

Dear Mr. White:

This is to confirm arrangements for CIA Deputy Director Dr. Robert M. Gates to address the Potomac Chapter National Military Intelligence Association on Thursday, 15 January, at Bolling Air Force Base NCO Club.

According to our conversation, the reception will begin at 11:30 a.m., lunch at 12:00 noon and his remarks at approximately 12:30 p.m. The proposed format is 25 minutes of remarks followed by 10 minutes of Questions and Answers. Adjournment is scheduled for 1:00 p.m. As we agreed, neither representatives of the media nor foreign nationals will be in the audience. A microphone and podium will be available. We would appreciate your taping the speech for our historical records.

Please send a brochure on your organization, a list of attendees, and if possible short biographies on those individuals that Dr. Gates will be meeting and any other pertinent information on arrangements. Enclosed as you requested is a biography of the Deputy Director. If you have any further questions on the arrangements for the event or if there is anything I can do to help you, please feel free to call me on [redacted]
